Message:

We are enclosing herewith copies of the preliminary amendment which was from the original preliminary amendment but with the correct PCT number, supplemental application data sheet and the executed declaration with the correct PCT number which were faxed to you on January 27, 2005.

We have received a Notification of Defective Response, copy enclosed, which indicates that the declaration is not correct because it does not identify the correct international application because it identifies PCT/KR00/00479 and not PCT/KR99/00479. As you can see from the enclosures faxed to you on January 27, 2005, we did provide the correct declaration with the correct PCT number. In addition, at this time we are also providing the updated preliminary amendment in the correct revised format, the supplemental application data sheet and the executed declaration. Accordingly, please let us know if we are to provide anything further in view of the attached copies. Thank you.
